DIED.

—One Mr. Tate living on Beaver Creek near James Gattys died with Consumption and Buried on last Monday. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his loss as we understand.

Bitten by a Dog.

—We understand that one of the Rogers' was bitten by a dog and is seriously injured; though we have not learned the particulars. He is a relative of Mr. John Rogers our mill man.

No More Children Desired.

The peculiarities of the Church of Israel as they gather at Benton Harbor, oftentimes startles Benton Harbor people. This sect still insists that Benton Harbor will be the meeting point where Christ will, during the next three years, greet his 144,000 chosen ones. Every week notes the arrival of a new party, either from the western coast or some point in the extreme east or south. The latest announcement made by this sect was that no children were to be allowed in any home of these people, but an asylum has been established, where to-day forty little ones, ranging from 1 year to 16 years of age, are housed. Over these an old man and woman have charge, but the cries that come from the overcrowded house have attracted the attention of Humane Officer Whitehead. The parents are allowed to visit their children but the orders come from Benjamin, who is at the head, that the little ones must be kept in this asylum. The order is also issued that as far as possible no more children will be brought into the world but that the mothers and fathers will hereafter use their best energies to provide food and clothing for the masses who are gathering from all parts of the globe.

Benton Harbor is preparing for the second coming of Christ and in anticipation of the event the members of the church known as the House of Israel are gathering there. According to the prophecies of the scripture as interpreted by the House of Israel the event will take place within three years. The church has Benton Harbor as the gathering place in America and it is expected that 144,000 members will be gathered there before the three years have elapsed.

The above has been clipped from the Nashville News, by a friend and handed to us for print.

Now we believe that the time is in the dim future when Christ will make his second advent into the world—For his word teach it—And it is for this reason that we believe it. And we believe that the world of people should prepare themselves to meet or receive Him—But we will have to ask the readers to read this.

—Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the Lord your God?

—Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a feast, call a solemn assembly:

Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? (Joel 2—12 to 18)

In order just to see how they are to prepare themselves they must not refuse the little children, even them that suck the breast are to be brought—Not refused—For Christ said suffer little children to come to him. Not forbid them or put them in a house to themselves, but in the very arms of Jesus. So readers you can see the difference between God and manism.

President Roosevelt's Letter.

President Roosevelt's letter in full to Governor Durbin was published in the Springfield Leader from which we quote a part:

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 7, '02

My Dear Governor Durbin: Permit me to thank your admirable citizens in the way they prevented the lynching by your recent action in reference to lynching. I feel my dear sir, that you have made all men your debtors who believe as all far-seeing men must, that the well-being indeed, the very existence, of the republic depends upon that orderly liberty under the law which is incompatible with mob violence as with any form of despotism. Of course mob violence is simply one form of anarchy, and anarchy is now, as it has always been, the handmaiden and forerunner of tyranny.

"I feel that you have not only reflected honor on the state which for its good fortune has you for its chief executive, but upon the whole nation. It is incumbent upon every man throughout this country not only to hold up their hands in the course you have been following, but to show his realization that the matter is one of vital concern to us all."

"But the fullest recognition of the horror of the crime and the most complete lack of sympathy with the criminal cannot in the least diminish our horror at the way in which it has been customary to avenge these crimes and at the consequences that are already proceeding therefrom. It is of course inevitable that where vengeance is taken by a mob it should frequently lighten innocent people and the wrong done in such a case to the individual ones for which there is no remedy. But even when criminals are reached, the wrong done by the mob to the community itself is well nigh as great. Especially is this true when the lynching is accompanied with torture. There are certain hideous sights which when once seen can never be wholly erased from the mental retina. The mere fact of having seen them implies degradation. This is a thousand fold stronger when instead of merely seeing the deed the man has participated in. Who ever in any part of our country has ever taken part in lawlessly putting to death a criminal by the dreadful torture of fire must forever after have the awful spectacle of his own hand-work seared into his brain and soul. He can never again be the same man."

"Surely no patriot can fail to see the fearful brutalization and debasement which the indulgence of such a spirit and such practices inevitable portend.

Surely all public men, all writers for the daily press, all clergymen, all teachers, all who in any way have a right to address the public, should with every energy unite to denounce such crimes and to support those engaged in putting them down. As a people we claim the right to speak with peculiar emphasis for freedom and for fair treatment of all men without regard to difference of race, fortune, creed or color. We forfeit the right so to speak when we commit or condone such crimes as these of which I now speak.

"The nation, like the individual, cannot commit a crime with impunity. If we are guilty of lawlessness and brutal violence, whether our guilt consists of active participation therein or in mere connection and encouragement, we shall assuredly suffer later on because of what we have done. The corner stone of this republic, as of all free governments, is respect for and obedience to the law.

"Therefore, if we permit the law to be defied or evaded, whether by a rich man or a poor man, by white man or a black man, we are by just so many weakening the bonds of our civilization and increasing the chances of its overthrow and of its substitution of a system in which there shall be violent alternations of anarchy and tyranny.

Sincerely yours:
—Theodore Roosevelt."

MOUNTAIN GROVE NEWS.

"By GUESS WHO."

Good morning Mr. Ed. and friendly correspondents I'll attempt to send a few more happenings this week.

We are having plenty of rain at present and every thing looks fine.
